CEO : Tracey A Kneale CBE

Class teacher required – KS2 post January 2024

This position is permanent. Salary will be dependent on experience.

We are looking to appoint a skilled, dedicated teacher with high expectations to join our outstanding team. The Marlbrook Collaboration of Schools is a magical place to work and for the right candidate will offer challenges and rewards like no other school. As a big organisation – there are four schools in our collaboration and more than 1,000 pupils - we are able to offer a range of great career opportunities for the right person, including subject co-ordination and leadership roles.

The ideal candidate will:

- be dedicated to ensuring all the child in their care become the best they can be
- have an extensive knowledge of, and passion for, the curriculum
- have excellent classroom management skills
- be a great team player
- be full of ideas on how to engage learners in the curriculum and instil a love of learning

In return we can offer:

- an attractive salary
- a chance to develop your skills and professional interests
- wonderful children and a great team of supportive colleagues
- an opportunity to make a difference in a fast-paced environment where children's learning, development and pastoral needs are at the heart of everything we do

The Marlbrook Collaboration is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS check. As an equal opportunities employer we welcome applications from professionals irrespective of race, gender, sexual orientation or disability. If you are passionate about education, have a commitment to personal excellence and are ready for a new challenge, we welcome your application.

Closing date for applications is 12 noon Monday November 13th 2023

Interview date: Monday November 20th 2023
